

SOCIETY

In order to prevent impositions and embarrassments, the Tribune requests that persons leaving social notes and especially marriage notices or engagements, for publication, leave with them names through which the source of the same may be traced if the matter is called in question.

CALENDAR.

There will be no more Saturday evening dinners at the Country club this season; luncheons will be served on Wednesday for the rest of this month.

Mrs. J. A. Earls will be hostess at a luncheon at her apartment today.

The first meeting this season of the P. E. O. society will be held at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. J. Gorham, 715 Second avenue.

Mrs. Henry Wiseman will entertain at a Kensington this afternoon, in honor of Miss Edna Evans, and this evening Miss Evans will be guest of honor at a party to be given by Mr. and Mrs. Nuttal.

Miss Blanche Martin will entertain at a "500" party this afternoon for Miss Alma Frost, who is visiting here from Myton, Utah.

Mrs. W. F. Smith will entertain at a "500" party this afternoon, in honor of Miss Bessie Felt, who will be married this month. Monday afternoon Miss Felt will be guest of honor at a "500" party to be given by Miss Geneva Felt, and Tuesday evening Miss Nellie Nicholson and the Misses Geneva and Gwynn Knowlton will entertain for Miss Felt at the home of the latter.

Miss Ida Smith will entertain at a "500" party this afternoon for Miss Emma Felt, an autumn bride.

Miss Ramola King entertained thirty-five at a party at the Orpheum Friday afternoon, followed by a luncheon at Franklin's, where a large basket of tips and pink and white asters graced the center of the table, around which were laid for Miss Zula Houtz, Provo, Miss Winifred Brice, Miss Alice Lewis, Miss Irene Hanson, Miss Marion Oberdorfer, Miss Mary Hallman, Miss Margaret Walker, Miss Margaret Dunn, Miss Shirley Palmer, Cleveland, Ohio, Miss Aileen McEllan, the Misses Bryan and Grizzelle, Miss Mildred Lane, Miss Elizabeth Lane, Miss Lillian Lane, Miss Ella Crane, Miss Elsie Yeates, Miss Zeda Beebe, Miss Bernice Opener, Miss Leigh Whittemore, Miss Adeline Weitz, Miss Gladys McConally, Miss Dorothy Colburne, Miss Ruth Goddard, Miss Josephine Weil, Miss Dorothy Bookledge, Miss Gladys Savage, Miss Virginia Beatty, Miss Leonard, Miss Marguerite Stewart, Miss Gertrude Hanson, Miss Margaret Werner and the chaperone, Mrs. W. Dunyon.

Miss Katherine Judge and her mother, Mrs. Mary Judge, returned the first of the week from California. They were accompanied by Mrs. T. A. Bald and children, who have spent the last year in the Philippines. Mrs. Baldwin and children will spend a month here and then join her husband, Captain Baldwin, at a fort near Detroit.

The hop hall at the post was the scene of a brilliant dancing party Friday evening, when Lieutenant and Mrs. Alvah Lee entertained about 125, in honor of Lieutenant Lee's cousin, Corbin Lee, who will return the last of the month to Annapolis. Blue and gold, the Annapolis colors, were effectively used in the decorations, with a profusion of sunflowers and blue ribbons. Flags draped around the room over the door hung a large anchor. Music was furnished during the evening by an orchestra.

Mr. and Mrs. Reed Smoot received about five hundred of their friends at reception at the B. Y. gymnasium at two Friday evening, in honor of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. Before the reception a family dinner was enjoyed at the Smoot home, when only the were laid for twenty-five. Flags and American beauty roses were handsomely used in the decorations.

The senior class of the Salt Lake high school held a meeting Friday afternoon, when the following officers for the year were elected: President, Gordon Kirby; vice president, Miss Dannie Karick; secretary, Miss Florence Haggood; treasurer, Robert Edwards; executive committee, the Misses Yeates, Ferron, Merrill, Dix and Chase.

Mrs. John A. Earls entertained twelve at a charming luncheon at her apartment in the Virginia Friday. Pink and white asters were effectively used in the decorations. Bridge followed, when prizes were won by Mrs. Louis Block, Mrs. D. M. McAllister and Mrs. Harry Gane.

Mrs. Graham F. Putnam and two sons have returned from Ely, Nev., and are at home to receive their friends at 28 Harmony place, on South Temple between Seventh and Eighth East streets. Mr. Putnam will be here early.

Harold MacGrath's
NEW NOVEL
The Goose Girl
Harold MacGrath, a writer whose name fiction readers are wont to conjure with, has set the pace for the fall fiction, and it's a pretty good pace. "The Goose Girl" is the title of this first fall product, and The Bobbs-Merrill Company is publishing it. It is a title that sounds well, but the reader will be pleased to find several characters outlined on the leaves of this MacGrath's best book, that will appeal to them fully as much as the humble virtuous, lovable "goose girl."—Boston Globe.
